

Whiche þe daughter of pilate erodias had de entrid & daniel & pleid to eroud & also to me sittige at þe mete: þe king seide to þe wenche: are þu of me: what þou wilt: & þu shalt þine to see: and he swor to hir: for whiche euer þou shalt are: I shall þine to see: þou it be þe half of my king dom: which whiche she hadde gon out: seide to hir modur: what shall I are: & she seide: þe heed of ioh baptist: and whiche she hadde etid anoun wry haste to þe king: she axide seynge: I wole þu anoo þou þine to me i a dish: þe heed of ioh baptist: & þe king was for þe ooy: & for me sittige to gide at þe mete: he wolde not make hir son but whiche amiqueller was sent:
he comande þe heed of ioh baptist for to be brougt i a dish: & he bishede hi in þe prison: & brougte his heed i a dish: & gaf it to þe wenche: & þe wenche gaf to hir mo dur: and whiche þis þing was herd: hise disciples came: & toke his bo di: & putte it i a burl. And a possibis comynge to gidre to ihu: & telde to hi alle þingis þe þe hadden don & tounit: & he seide to he: come ze bizon sile: to a desert place: & reste ze altil: for þe weren manye pat came & wente aze: & þe hadde not spate for to ete: & þe arynge to a boot: wente to a desert pla ce: by he sile: & þe spen he goynge aþey: & manye kneibe: and þe soden on feet fro alle citees: & ru nen to gidre yidur: & came bifoze he: and he goynge out: syz moche cūpamp: & hadde mercy on he: for þe weren as sheep: not hanys a sheparde: & he bigan for to teche hem: manye þingis: & whiche moche our was maid nou: hise disciples came wry seynge: þis place is de sert: & nou þe our har passid: lee ne he: & þe goynge into þe neete tonnes & vilagis: bpe to he me tis whiche þe schulen ete: and he answerige seide to he: þine ze to hem for to ete: & þe seiden to him: go we & bpe we loones wry two hundrid pens: & we schule þine to hem for to ete: and he seip to he: how manye loones han ze: go ze & se: & whiche þe hadde knowen: þe seide: þine & two fyllis: and he coman dide to he: & þe schule make alle me sitte to mete bi cūpampes on grene hey: and þe saten dou bi þe pes: bi hundridis & fifties: & whiche he hadde take þe fyne loones & the fyllis: he biheel into heuene: & a bleide & braf loones: & gaf to hi se disciples: & þe schulen putte bifoze he: and he departide twy fyllis to alle: & alle eete & weren fyllid: and þe token þe rellys of brokū metis: & twelue cōffins ful: & of þe fyllis: to þe þe pat eete: woren fyne þousand of me: and anoo he cōfresmede hise disciples for to stye to a boot: & þe schule palle bifoze hi ouer þe see to bet cayda: þe while he lefte þe peple: & whiche he hadde left hem: he wete into an hyl for to preie: & whiche eue nyg was: þe boot was in þe mid del of see: & he aloone in þe lond: & he syz he trauelþge & rowþge for þe wynd was cōtrarie to he:

and aboute þe four þe walkyng of þe nyg: he wandrige on þe see cam to hem: & wolde passe he: & as þe spen hi wandrige on þe see:

þe gen
for alle blid and de to he te: & he þe wynd
wry þine
of þe loon
did: & wh þe see: þ sareth: & hadde go
þe wen
al þe cit
i beddis
re þe he he entru
to cite
in strete ulden to clor: & ho
hi: were
And
þe hadde
ete heed
is not w lope far not: no b hondis: h patutis o nyge aze
no bitt þ
oper þig hem for þis & of sels of b & arbis: a
en not þ dicton of ne hound
answerige